

Halton Peel Humanist Community

haltonpeelhumanists.ca

Welcome to Halton Peel Humanist Community.

For those of you who are new to our community, we would like to extend a special welcome.

H-PHC welcomes freethinking individuals, atheists and humanists concerned with the incursion of religion into civic affairs. We hope you find us to be a forum where you will be able to express your views, freely, among other atheists. This is an outlet for opinion that few other organizations can provide and it is especially important for new members, who may otherwise feel intimidated, to know they may express themselves strongly, vociferously and controversially without fear of prejudice or opprobrium. We only ask of newcomers to our forums that which we ask of our existing members and friends.

That we conduct ourselves with decorum and civility. Enthusiasm and fervor are most welcome in our discussions, but always with respect for divergent viewpoints, fellow participants, invited guests and speakers and, of course, with due deference to the moderator/facilitator for any particular event or discussion.

For those of you who are already members or previous participants, welcome back. We assume you are already familiar with our conduct guidelines and as fellow Humanists are ready to enjoy the debate and discussion without rancor or ill will in the spirit of promoting our cause.

For all Existing Members, Old Friends and New Friends, we would invite you to join or renew your membership by paying a subscription fee, set for 2011, at $50.00 for the year. This fee includes a 1-year subscription to Humanist Perspectives a quarterly publication with articles and features of interest and value to Humanists, Atheists, Freethinkers, Skeptics and Enquiring Minds of all stripes. (Those wishing to join but already subscribed to Humanist Perspectives may pay only $35.00)

Personal Cheques are accepted or subscribe via Pay-Pal at: haltonpeelhumanists.ca

Prof. John Jackson
President
Halton Peel Humanist Community